W. C. Greene has been indicted in the second degree for the killing of Jim Barnett and will have his trial on the 14th inst. There is not much doubt but that Mr. Greene will be cleared as he did what any man under the circumstances would have done and the man he killed was a mighty good man to be dead.

At the last meeting of the Nogales town council Captain J. J. Noon was elected mayor, vice G. A. Avery, resigned, and T. J. Wylie was elected clerk, vice A. J. Griswold, resigned. Captain Noon is one of the solid citizens of Nogales and a true friend of the town. We congratulate the council in its selection of Captain Noon for mayor.

J. W. O'Conner, the mill-wright, is back from Harshaw where he put in some of the latest improved Frue Vaners for Billy Powers at his World's Fair mine. Chas. Wednesday morning about four o'clock a fire broke out in the woodshed adjoining the residence of E. L. Pearson. Mix and Marshall Bird and they soon had a stream of water trained on the burning shed which extinguished what might have been a conflagration.

Mr. Coleman comes here from California, he is an experienced mining man and will fill the position he has been appointed to admirably. Mr. L. Deputy U. S. Attorney Alfred Franklin was in Nogales Thursday to attend the Kunde trial before U. S. Court Commissioner Frank Duffy. Mr. Franklin and his superior, E. E. Ellinwood, are the only two holdover democrats. Mr. Ellinwood has tendered his resignation several times but Mr. McKinley doesn't seem in any hurry to put a man in his place. It would be hard to find men in any political party who would fill the office any better than does Mr. Ellinwood and his aide assistant.

Luis Proto and Captain Nom have been interesting the citizens of Nogales during the week with a petition to raise money to pay L. F. Parker for his services as attorney in defeating the Nogales land grant. Up to time of going to press $1700 of the $2000 had been raised and no doubt the balance will be secured by this afternoon. Baldwin, who was formerly stationed at Fort Huachuca and who is well known here by many of our citizens, was in Nogales Tuesday and Wednesday on his tour of inspection of the companies of the territorial militia. Captain Baldwin inspected the local company Tuesday afternoon and found the boys well drilled and well equipped. In the evening the officers of the company gave the captain a banquet at Coffee Jimmie's where they partook of the good things the market affords. No company in Arizona outside of the large towns make as good a showing as does the Nogales company.

U. S. Inspector Sam King was over from Bisbee Thursday on a business trip. Sam says the report that Black Jack's gang chased him out of the mountains is not true as he did not even see any of the gang, though he probably could have seen them last Saturday had he gone to Bisbee from the custom house that day. Several members of the gang were laying for him between the two places and a friend of his telegraphed him from Bisbee that they were there. This gang has threatened to kill King and Will Hildreth on account of their activity in chasing the gang several times. Both King and Hildreth will stay in that country as they do not believe the fellows will make their threat good.

Fine Stock for Arizona.
Colin Cameron loaded out a car load of mixed stock this afternoon for his ranch at Lochiel, Arizona. Few cars of stock sent from the yards recently have represented so much value as this one of Mr. Cameron's. In it were several registered Guernsey cows and bulls, a couple of Holsteins and several Herefords, three thoroughbred horses and a Shetland stallion. The Guernseys, Holsteins and Herefords were all young cattle, and of registered pedigree. They cost an average of nearly $500 a head, and were bought here and in Missouri. Two thoroughbred stallion colts and mare of famous racing stock went to the Arizona ranch, and the Shetland stallion, which stood not over two feet high, was for the improvement of Mr. Cameron's already large herd of Shetland ponies. The latter came from Pennsylvania, and was shipped by express in a crate.—Kansas City Times.

The mare and colt were sold Mr. Cameron by U. S. Live Stock Sanitary Inspector Adair, of this port.
